

The "no not fax" rulings is going to result in more record keeping for small businesses. We have enough record keeping requirements. The existing rules on business relationships were adequate.